

PROPHECY UPDATE 2019
“WE WILL NOT LISTEN!”
PART 2

I hope you have been seeing in our studies so far that yes, things look out of control from a human perspective. But as we look at the Bible and compare what God has said to what is going on, we see that things are going just as God has planned. He has warned us of these things so that we will not be afraid and so that we will be a witness to others of what is coming down the pike you might say in regard to Biblical prophecy and world events!

3. APPLE OF MY EYE – ISRAEL – DON’T TOUCH – WE WILL NOT!

In our next study we are going to look at – APPLE OF MY EYE – ISRAEL – DON’T TOUCH – WE WILL NOT!

And I don’t know if you have been seeing this, but there is a growing movement of anti-Semitism throughout the world and we are moving towards a massive war against Israel and the Jewish people that is spoken of in Ezekiel chapters 38 and 39.

Remember what God said in Genesis 12:1-3, “Now the Lord had said to Abram: ‘Get out of your country, From your family And from your father’s house, To a land that I will show you. I will make you a great nation; I will bless you And make your name great; And you shall be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, And I will curse him who curses you; And in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed.’”

Israel is the apple of God’s eye, as Zechariah 2:8 tells us, “For thus says the Lord of hosts: ‘He sent Me after glory, to the nations which plunder you; for he who touches you touches the apple of His eye.’”

In other words, don’t mess around with God’s people, the Jews, He is very sensitive about them and He will protect them!

As we watch the news and see how the nations spoken of in Ezekiel chapters 38 and 39 are coming together, especially Turkey, this war against Israel is getting closer and closer!

Keep in mind that it was not that long ago that Turkey was an ally of Israel, but now they have become more extreme and this extremism is associated with Islam! Once a friend to Israel, but now an enemy, just like the Bible said would happen.

And now we see that Russia, Iran and Turkey are working together, with troops on the ground in the Middle East, specifically Syria and their eyes are set on Israel. Never forget that, not because I said it, but because the Bible tells us it is going to happen!

Let me just share with you what the Bible is saying and then we will look at the players in this battle and what we are seeing in the world today.

In Ezekiel 38:1-9 we are told, “Now the word of the Lord came to me, saying, ‘Son of man, set your face against Gog, of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him, and say, ‘Thus says the Lord God : “Behold, I am against you, O Gog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal. I will turn you around, put hooks into your jaws, and lead you out, with all your army, horses, and horsemen, all splendidly clothed, a great company with bucklers and shields, all of them handling swords. Persia, Ethiopia, and Libya are with them, all of them with shield and helmet; Gomer and all its troops; the house of Togarmah from the far north and all its troops - many people are with you. Prepare yourself and be ready, you and all your companies that are gathered about you; and be a guard for them. After many days you will be visited. In the latter years you will come into the land of those brought back from the sword and gathered from many people on the mountains of Israel, which had long been desolate; they were brought out of the nations, and now all of them dwell safely. You will ascend, coming like a storm, covering the land like a cloud, you and all your troops and many peoples with you.””

First of all, we see the name “Gog” mentioned and it is not really a name, it is a title. The name “Gog” means “ruler” or “man on top.” This is the dictator of the land of Magog. Some feel this is speaking of the present-day leader of Russia, Putin, but time will tell on that one.

This leader is over Magog and historically speaking, they were the ancient Scythians who lived in the area known today as Russia.

We also see that they will come from the “far north” or “the uttermost parts of the north” used some three times in these two chapters. (Ezekiel 38:6, 38:15, 39:2)

This army will come down from the “far north” upon Israel!

Again, I believe this is the area known as Russia today, for if you draw a line from Israel northward you will run into Moscow.

Also understand that Russia is spread out from east to west some 6,000 miles, spanning some 11 time zones!

So it is hard to miss who Ezekiel is speaking of. In fact, Rabbi Chaim Valoshinere said the following in the mid-nineteenth century, “When you see the Russian army begin to move southward and enter Turkey, put on your Sabbath garments and get ready to welcome the Messiah.”

Now in verse 2, where it says, “The prince of Rosh” is probably better translated as “The chief prince of Meshech.”

Let me explain it like this. Rosh is translated as “chief,” “head,” or “top” in dozens of places in all translations. It denotes the most important or highest position (“chief” or “top” in regard to status, and “head” in regard to anatomy). The most plain and honest translation seems to be “chief prince” since the subject matter of the passage concerns Gog, a chief commander of a coalition of invading nations. Thus, it should be “The chief prince of Meshech.”

Now Meshech was the sixth son of Japheth and is associated with modern Turkey, probably eastern Turkey.

Then there is Tubal and Tubal was the fifth son of Japheth and many feel that this is speaking of modern-day Turkey.

Then we see Persia mentioned. Interestingly enough we see that back in 1932 Persia changed its name to Iran! And Iran is the principle leader in the rise of “Islamic Fundamentalism.”

You see, this army is not made up of only Arab's. That is not the uniting force that has drawn them together. Then what is the glue that holds this army together? They are all Muslim in faith and of course they are very anti-Israel! Iran wants to destroy the Jews; we see that over and over again from its leaders and they are in the process of developing nuclear weapons, and they are getting very close to achieving this!

Who is helping them achieve nuclear weapons? Russia is working with Iran in helping them build a nuclear weapon, even though Iran is denying this. Listen to what the Russian Deputy Prime Minister and Former envoy to NATO said about any threat to Iran, “Iran is our close neighbor, just south of the Caucasus. Should anything happen to Iran, should Iran get drawn into any political or military hardships, this will be a direct threat to our national security.”

Can you see what would happen if Israel attacked Iran destroying its nuclear facilities? Maybe that will be one of the hooks in the jaw of Russia that brings them into this conflict. And you have to know that the other Islamic nations would come against Israel as well!

Then there is Ethiopia or Cush, it is translated both ways in the Bible versions, but it is speaking of the same area. This is referring to “Black Africa.” And it probably covers some two-thirds of the African continent with the other one-third being the upper portion of the continent. And again, the principle faith here is Islamic Fundamentalism, they are Muslim!

Next is Libya or Put and this is speaking of the upper part of Africa, from the midpoint westward, reaching from Libya to Mauritania, Algeria, Tunisia and Morocco. And again, they are Muslim!

Then there is Gomer and the people of Gomer are probably speaking of North Central Turkey although some believe it is speaking of Germany. I lean more with Turkey being spoken of here.

We also see Togarmah and these people settled in the area of modern-day Turkey and Turkestan.

Here in Ezekiel we see Russia and these Islamic nations coming down to destroy Israel. In this it seems that Russia is drawn into this battle, maybe because of the alliances that it has made with these Muslim nations. Also, because of the huge gas and oil deposits they have found in Israel. God puts His hooks in their jaw and draws them into this battle.

Nations named in Gog's Alliance - yellow
Nations not named in Gog's Alliance - blue

Now, as you look at these nations there are some who are noticeably absent. The Middle East nations that are absent and yet surround modern day Israel are Syria, Lebanon, which I believe will be destroyed before this battle begins and may be the spark that brings these nations down upon Israel as they are the ones who destroy Damascus or this area.

We see this in Isaiah 17:1 and in Psalm 83, as the nation's gather to destroy Israel, we see God wipe out these enemies, and specifically, Damascus or Syria!

And, again, this may be what draws Russia and these Islamic nations into war with Israel, or at least one of the reasons.

Also, we see Jordan, Egypt and Gaza absent. They just observe what is going on and I think they are worried about what is going on, they are fearful for their own existence!

And, interestingly enough, Saudi Arabia, which has now become friends with Israel. Hard to imagine, but again, they are not in this war of God and Magog spoken of in Ezekiel!

As I have said, Russia, Turkey and Iran have become partners, you might say, in this war in Syria, backing the president of Syria.

And here is another possible scenario to set the stage for this war, and that is Iran, who is getting closer to developing a nuclear weapon, as I have said. Listen to this report from November 26th of this year. We are told,

This marks a dangerous phase in Iran's nuclear defiance. Tehran is now using a kind of prototype centrifuge that enriches uranium almost 50 times faster.

Although Iran is a party to the Non-Proliferation Treaty (NPT), it refuses to allow the International Atomic Energy Agency to inspect its sites. The IAEA is also not allowed to inspect or monitor Iran's military sites where nuclear activities are most likely being carried out.

That is why, before it is too late, which it is fast becoming, it is incumbent on the US and the international community to take seriously Iran's nuclear advances and urgently address its rush to obtain nuclear weapons.

This marks a dangerous phase in Iran's nuclear defiance. Tehran is now using a kind of prototype centrifuge that enriches uranium almost 50 times faster.

The Iranian government is shortening its nuclear breakout time - the amount of time required to produce enough weapons-grade uranium for a single nuclear weapon.

Tehran has accomplished this through several steps in the last few months. Iran's government first increased its enriched uranium stockpile beyond the 300-kilogram limit; it enriched uranium to levels beyond the cap of 3.67 percent, and then activated 20 IR-4 and 20 IR-6 advanced centrifuges. The Iranian leaders even boasted that their government is now exploring new uranium enrichment programs and producing centrifuges.

Most recently, the head of the Atomic Energy Organization of Iran, Ali Akbar Salehi, declared that Iran has an adequate supply of 20% enriched uranium. “Right now we have enough 20% uranium,” he told the Iranian Students News Agency, ISNA, “but we can produce more as needed”. He added that the country is resuming uranium enrichment at a far higher level at the Fordow nuclear facility - an underground uranium enrichment facility which is reportedly located on one of bases of the Islamic revolutionary Guard Corps (IRGC) injecting uranium gas into centrifuges, and operating 60 IR-6 advanced centrifuges.

This marks a dangerous phase in Iran’s nuclear defiance. Tehran is now using a kind of prototype centrifuge that enriches uranium almost 50 times faster.

Iran’s nuclear breakout time in 2015 was estimated at less than one year. Tehran has advanced its nuclear program since then. In an interview with Iran’s state-owned Channel 2, Salehi admitted that the “nuclear deal” initiated by then-US President Barack Obama not only failed to restrict Iran’s nuclear program; it actually helped Iran to advance its nuclear program through the flow of funds thanks to the lifting of sanctions.

“If we have to go back and withdraw from the nuclear deal,” he stated, “we certainly do not go back to where we were before . . . We will be standing in a much, much higher position.”

I hope you can clearly see that all the players are in place and now it is in God’s timing when this war will break out, not IF but WHEN!

Now the timing of this war has been debated but I feel that it will occur before the Tribulation Period begins and it will be one of the things that opens the door for the Antichrist to come to power. Catastrophes, wars, global warming, turmoil, anything and everything will be used to make this a unanimous decision for this man to come to power over the nations of the world!

And we can spend a lot of time looking at all that is going on here, but to me, this is all moving us towards a global government! And that is what we will be looking at next.

God has warned the people of this world that Israel is His, the Jews are His people, they are the APPLE OF MY EYE – ISRAEL – DON'T TOUCH and yet, they are saying WE WILL NOT!

4. FOLLOW ME – WE WILL NOT!

In this study we will be looking at how the world is moving farther and farther away from God and in doing so they will be embracing the Antichrist and his rule of the nations of the world!

Let me ask you this question. What two world leaders, who are fighting for the sovereignty of their nations, are being attacked for their nationalism?

This is pretty easy, I know. But it is our President, Donald Trump and the Prime Minister of Israel, Benjamin Netanyahu!

Let me just show you how this is playing out, because Donald Trump has put up a roadblock for the United States becoming a socialist nation and being part of New World Order or a One-World Government!

This article is from September 24th of this year, after President Trump spoke at the United Nations and believe me, the world was not happy at what he said.

In fact, listen to the title of the article from BuzzFeed, “Trump’s Latest Speech To The UN Was Filled With Dog Whistles And Unbridled Nationalism.” What did he say that got so many upset?

Again, listen to this article because this is how many in the United States feel and all over the world as they push for a One-World Government. We are told,

Trump’s fiery assault on multilateralism and diversity in favor of nationalism in front of the UN General Assembly was still shocking to hear from a US president even after his years in office.

In the past, US presidents speaking from the green marble dais in the United Nations’ General Assembly Hall have focused on calling for the gathered leaders and diplomats to focus on what brings us together - and how only together can the world move forward.

And then there’s President Donald Trump, who in his third appearance at the annual opening of the UN General Assembly was more forceful than ever in declaring the importance of not just nationalism, but a devotion to country and history, in a speech that repeated tropes used by the white nationalist and anti-Semitic portions of his base.

“Like my beloved country, each nation represented in this hall has a cherished history, culture, and heritage that is worth defending and celebrating and which gives us our singular potential and strength,” Trump said. “The free world must embrace its national foundations. It must not attempt to erase them or replace them.”

“The future does not belong to globalists,” he continued, “the future belongs to patriots.” And in an extended section about the dangers that unchecked immigration represents, he provided “a message for those open-border activists, who cloak themselves in the rhetoric of social justice. These policies are not just. Your policies are cruel and evil.”

“When you undermine border security, you are undermining human rights and dignity,” he said. “Many of the countries here today are coping with the challenges of uncontrolled migration. Each of you has the absolute right to protect your borders. And so, of course, does our country.”

While the words may have been wrapped up in the patina of an international address, the rhetoric at its core has gained a certain familiarity in recent years. Members of the so-called alt-right and white supremacists in the dark corners of the internet have targeted Jewish public figures as “globalists” with increasing volume since the run-up to the 2016 election.

The phrase on its face refers to those who would see international bodies, like the United Nations, able to impose rules on otherwise independent countries or otherwise support a less nationalistic trade system economically. But in linking it with Jews, it takes on a connection to long-standing and hateful stereotypes that Jews are a people without a home who seek to infiltrate and conquer free . . . countries as part of a global plot. Use of the term “cosmopolitan” in the 1930s and 1940s shared a similar history of paranoia and animosity toward Jews. . . .

“The true good of a nation can only be pursued but those who love it, by citizens who are rooted in its history, who nourished by its culture, committed to its values, attached to its people, and know that its future is theirs to build or theirs to lose,” Trump said. That phrase, “rooted in its history,” would seem a high bar to reach for immigrants recently arrived from Mexico or Honduras in the eyes of many of the president’s listeners, even as their culture permeates what we think of as the mainstream in the US today.

White House aide Stephen Miller is both the architect of the administration’s harsh immigration policies and one of the primary writers of many of Trump’s international addresses over the years. It was his hand that wrote a speech for delivery at NATO that refused to uphold that organization’s commitment for its members to defend each other. It was reportedly his voice that came out of Trump’s mouth at the UN last year. And despite the fact that Miller himself is Jewish, a fact often mentioned along with Jared Kushner and Ivanka’s Judaism to defend the president from calls of anti-Semitism, it tracks that this year’s speech would double-down on the themes we heard in 2018, taking on a more intense and sinister edge in the face of what’s happened in the intervening months.

In its totality, the speech Trump gave to the UN was one that pushes the Westphalian system - where states live in perpetual anarchy, doing as they will within their borders, agreeing that sovereignty within those borders is second only to God’s will - to its limits. Gone are the times of the responsibility to protect innocents in the face of mass atrocities and the idea of fundamental human rights that go beyond borders. In its place we have a slavish devotion to the walls - invisible and physical - that anchor the concepts of statehood and nationality in Trump and his administration’s eyes.

Isn't that interesting. If you are a nationalist, if you are a patriot then you are a white supremacist and anti-Semitic and you don't care for those who are hurting, those who are in need.

You have to be kidding me. That is such fake news! They should be ashamed of themselves in how they are portraying people in this country who believe we are a sovereign nation, and we are, at least for the moment! Men and women have fought for our freedom and now we mock them and think that being a patriot is wrong! So sad!

Again, this is the rederick we are hearing if you stand up for your country and you are not part of the globalist agenda!

And as you listen to world leaders, they too were not happy with Donald Trump's speech at the United Nations, which tells me he was right on as he irritated the globalists!

And please understand that the United Nations wants a world government in less than 10 years! Let me share this with you and you will see what I mean. We are told,

In the 1960s, an informed but naïve undergraduate, I was walking across the campus of the University of Pennsylvania with the Chairman of the Chemistry Department, Prof. Charles C. Price.

He told me that he was president of the United World Federalists, and asked if I knew what that organization was. When I said that I did not, he replied that they believed in a one-world government that would grow out of the United Nations.

I was nonplussed as I had never heard anyone suggest that idea before. To me, the United Nations was a benevolent organization dedicated to pressuring the world community in the direction of peace, and to operating charitable programs to help the struggling, impoverished peoples of the world. I imagined the UN as a kind of United Way on a worldwide scale.

How would Prof. Price's vision of a new world government emerge? Although there was a socialistic thread in its founding document, the United Nations was formed based on a vision of human rights presented in the "Universal Declaration of Human Rights" (UDHR) which placed the concept of rights at the forefront for the progress of the world body. . . .

In 2015, seventy years after their original rights-based document, the UN took a giant step towards the global government that was only hinted at in their first organizing document. They issued a document entitled "Transforming Our World: the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development."

This document has 91 numbered sections of the UN's program for world government. The UDHR is only referenced once in the entire document in Article 19. Unlike the original "mother document" that was under 1900 words, this document is 14,883 words. The 91 items are addressing issues under the five headings of People, Planet, Prosperity, Peace, and Partnership.

Additionally, the document provides 17 Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) to improve life on the planet.

What is meant by the term "sustainable?" The most often quoted definition comes from the UN World Commission on Environment and Development: "sustainable development is development that meets the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their own needs."

The earlier ideas and ideals of rights, freedom, equality, and justice are subsumed under meeting of needs and an explicit environmentalism which emphasizes preventing the depletion of scarce planetary resources. Of course, the takeoff is the Marxist axiom that society should be organized around the idea of “from each according to his ability to each according to his needs.”

Thus, Marxism is implicit in sustainability, but is nuanced by its alliance with seemingly scientific adjustments and goals related to environmentalism. A technical jargon is welded to Marxist intentionality to produce a sense of fittingness and modern progress.

The entire “Transforming Our World” document is cast in a stream of consciousness of pious platitudes for a utopian future. It is an outsize utopian dream. Five of the 17 items pertain to the environment. There are goals for the cities, for women, for the poor, and even for life under the water. Absolutely no sphere of human activity is exempt from control by the UN. The key word of course is no longer “rights” except the oblique reference in Article 19. In fact, this writer did not see the word rights even once in this document even though that word appeared in practically every sentence of the original UN document.

The one-worlders of the 1950s and early 1960s are now in the UN driver’s seat, and they have made their move. The overlay of Marxist talk about “meeting needs” has moved to center stage. The UN has assigned itself a time frame for moving forward in its plan for planetary hegemony.

This projected transformation detailing (yet without details) a new world order of environmental responsibility and a significant reduction of poverty and hunger never speaks to the practical dimension of vast manipulations of people by cynical leaders and ignorant bureaucrats who hold their positions through terrorism and bribery. They never discuss incompetence and corruption, twin brothers in the family of venality.

The document portrays a sincere world where all those in power want to help humanity despite the daily evidence of the selfishness, corruption, murderous intents, devilish manipulations, thefts, personal immoralities, hatreds, and utter depravity of many governmental leaders in every country in the world, and among the leaders of business as well.

Is not the Agenda for Sustainable Development itself one of those devilish manipulations?

The sustainability ideal is not wedded to a Christian worldview; instead, individual liberty is submerged in a scientifically determined collectivist mindset with final decisions in the hands of the devilish, all-knowing Big Brothers.

The relevance of the individual is downplayed. It is being put forward by a UN that is no longer pro-western, a much larger body than existed in 1945. . . .

So we see that the United Nations is pushing for this socialistic One-World Government, but who else is promoting this or trying to push it upon us?

The leader of the Roman Catholic Church, Pope Francis has been pushing for this socialist One-World Government for some time now. Listen to this report, from a Catholic website that is concerned where the Pope is leading the church.

They wrote,

Globalism is, in short, a governing system whereby individual nations cede, or hand over, some of their national sovereignty to a kind of collective government.

So by definition, globalism and nationalism are pretty much in opposition. . . .

Here is the extremely critical gigantic point to remember: Globalism would usher in one supranational governing authority that would have complete control as though every current nation were just a single state in the worldwide nation.

Pope Francis and his globalist cheerleader crowd in Rome are posturing that the very foundational concept of individual nations are now little else than nostalgic entities which have become overrun by giant transnational corporations.

To carry the thought further, these corporations are all greedy, exploit the poor of the earth, poison the environment and are able to get away with all of it because they get to hide behind and operate through the laws of individual nations.

So for the Pope, there is only one solution to all this: abolish nations, make one-world government and reign in these greedy businesses with fines, penalties and jail time if necessary. . . .

. . . the entire notion of such a one-world government is the ideal of Marxist communism. Even though Obama said spread the wealth, he was not the first guy with the idea. Karl Marx was.

. . . Exactly who would be the ruling class making the new laws to impose on the entire human race, and, more to the point, what if the “people” wanted to throw off this one-world government down the road, what mechanism would be in place?

. . . what laws precisely would be imposed, say, for example, about abortion, sodomite marriage, taxation, private property and so on?

. . . and when it comes to the specific area of religion, if there is one world governing body, then it stands to reason that there would have to, eventually, be one world religion - or no world religion. . . .

A few days ago, in his bid to dress up one-world government, Pope Francis suggested that the very concept of nationalism had within itself “echoes of Hitler.” Then there are fightin’ words.

- <http://bit.ly/2YdNFfo>

Listen to what Pope Francis said back on September 1st of this year. “[O]ur daily decisions about food, consumption, transportation, use of water, energy and many other material goods, can often be thoughtless and harmful. Too many of us act like tyrants with regard to creation. Let us make an effort to change and to adopt more simple and respectful lifestyles! Now is the time to abandon our dependence on fossil fuels and move, quickly and decisively, towards forms of clean energy and a sustainable and circular economy. Let us also learn to listen to indigenous peoples, whose age-old wisdom can teach us how to live in a better relationship with the environment.”

And I want you to see the people he is rubbing shoulders with, and how this is all playing out towards this One-World Government. We are told,

Pope Francis challenged governments on Sunday to take “drastic measures” to combat global warming and reduce the use of fossil fuels, saying the world was experiencing a climate emergency.

Sounding more like a university student-activist, many believe that Francis' friendship with radical leftist, multi-billionaire George Soros has influenced the head of the Catholic Church to minimize his talk about opposing abortion and homosexuality and maximize his role in protecting the environment, supporting gun control, and opening the Vatican to representatives of other religions, cults and quasi-religious groups.

Francis issued his appeal for protecting the planet in a written message for Sunday's World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation, ahead of the United Nations Climate Action Summit this month in New York, a follow up to the 2016 Paris Agreement to curb global warming.

The Pontiff called the United Nations summit "of particular importance."

"There, governments will have the responsibility of showing the political will to take drastic measures to achieve as quickly as possible zero net greenhouse gas emissions and to limit the average increase in global temperature to 1.5 degrees Celsius with respect to pre-industrial levels, in accordance with the Paris Agreement goals." . . .

"Basically, from what we've gleaned from the Wikileaks and DCLeaks material, the Pope is actually colluding with one of the world's wealthiest - some say wickedest - neo-Socialists who is hell bent in creating a single ruling entity for the entire planet. His vision dwarfs even the world described by George Orwell in his cautionary tale 1984," claims political consultant and attorney Michael Baker.

Baker believes that of all the pontiffs sitting on the Vatican throne Pope Francis is the closest to an irreligious Marxist by far. “The fact is our Pope is from South America, which is arguably a hotbed of Marxism, neo-Socialism and totalitarian communism. It gave this Pope a different perspective from those coming from European nations,” Baker noted.

And we can look at our government and those running for Presidency in the 2020 elections, and every Democratic candidate is a socialist and now they are proud of it.

And I believe that this is going to move us toward this One-World Government as not only the Democratic Party but many in the Republican Party as well are for socialism and the removal of our sovereignty.

President Dwight D. Eisenhower warned us in his farewell address to the nation on Jan. 17, 1961 about the New World Order. He spoke of the importance of guarding against the potential influence of the “military industrial complex, the dangers of massive deficit spending, government influence on scholars, and a “scientific technological elite.”

Months later after taking office, President John F. Kennedy explained that he, too, recognized the New World Order; how it worked, who was behind it, and its dangers. He spoke about it in a speech on April 27, 1961. He said,

“For we are opposed around the world by a monolithic and ruthless conspiracy that relies on covert means for expanding its sphere of influence - on infiltration instead of invasion, on subversion instead of elections, on intimidation instead of free choice, on guerrillas by night instead of armies by day. It is a system which has conscripted vast human and material resources into the building of a tightly knit, highly efficient machine that combines military, diplomatic, intelligence, economic, scientific and political operations. Its preparations are concealed, not published. Its mistakes are buried not headlined. Its dissenters are silenced, not praised. No expenditure is questioned, no rumor is printed, no secret is revealed.”

The public disclosure of the New World Order was silenced on Nov. 22, 1963 when President Kennedy was cut down by an assassins bullet. . . .

Adam Wisehophf, founder of The Order of the Illumination, designed the very plan of world domination that is still in use today to enslave the world’s masses. Upon establishing his “Order of the Illuminati”, he smugly reflects on his “conning” the gullible Christians of his day, saying: “The most wonderful thing of all is that the distinguished Lutheran and Calvinist theologians who belong to our order really believe that they see in it (Illuminati) the true and genuine sense of Christian Religion. Oh mortal man, is there anything you cannot be made to believe?”

Before I comment on this, listen carefully to what one person wrote. “Every record has been destroyed or falsified, every book rewritten, every picture has been repainted, every stature and street building has been renamed, every date has been altered, and the processes is continuing day by day and minute by minute, history has stopped, nothing exists except an endless present in which the party is always right.”

Wow, this person nailed it. He clearly sees what is happening in our nation and really, all over the world. Who said those profound words?

It was not from some news source or prophecy page, but it was written by George Orwell in his book 1984!

Fiction becomes reality in the days we are living in folks, and you don’t realize how quickly our freedom and our voice is being taken away.

Think about it for a minute, because it is already happening.

First of all, social media. If you print something that goes against what Facebook feels is right, you can be put in Facebook jail and have your post removed!

Let me show you what I mean by this post that was removed and you tell me what is wrong with it. Here it is folks.

What was so wrong with what this person said that Facebook removed the post?

It went against their agenda and that is a no, no! You see, they are tolerant as long as you post things that are okay with them. But if you cross that line you are in trouble and your post will be taken down and you may have to do some time in Facebook jail, where you can't post things!

Now you may be thinking that this is not such a big deal, and maybe it isn't, but it is the start of what is coming down the pike!

Think about this. If you are a supporter of Donald Trump, according to the media, according to liberals, you are a white supremacist Nazi intolerant person!

Now maybe I am wrong, but aren't they being intolerant by their own words?

Again, no because they are not intolerant, you are!

And make no mistake about it, Big Brother is watching you, he is monitoring you.

Listen to this report and see what happens if you don't conform to the way social media wants you to conform. We are told,

The year is 1984. One company – Microsoft – dominates the computer world. It's their way or the highway.

Conform or die.

This snapshot in time was perfectly captured in one of the most famous commercials in TV history.

Set in a gray, dystopian future, row after row of men stare blankly at a giant screen from which Big Brother – the all-powerful leader from George Orwell's classic novel 1984 – addresses them.

Suddenly, riot police burst into the hall, chasing a beautiful, blonde woman in a white shirt and red shorts. Before they can grab her, she hurls a sledgehammer into the screen, shattering Big Brother and his grip on the masses. The narrator informs us that Apple's breakthrough product, the Macintosh computer, will be the device that sets us all free.

Looking back, Apple largely lived up to its promise. A new wave of companies, each in its own way, followed the example set by Apple's legendary CEO, Steve Jobs.

Google gave us instant access to vast amounts of information.

Facebook gave us a new way to connect with friends, family, and the world.

Twitter brought this world to us in real time.

And YouTube allowed anyone with a smartphone to become a virtual broadcast network unto themselves.

It was glorious and empowering.

But that was yesterday. Today, it's 1984 all over again. Big Brother is back – with an important twist.

Our former liberators now want to be our masters.

Apple, Google, YouTube, Facebook and Twitter, the giants of social media, are demanding conformity to their values.

It's their way or the highway. Conform or die.

This image is perfectly captured not by an ad, but by this recent real-life scene: Row after row of men and women stare up at Tim Cook, Apple's CEO, as he makes a presentation – ironically – before a civil rights group.

“We only have one message for those who seek to push hate, division, and violence: You have no place on our platforms,” Cook tells his audience. “You have no home here.”

“Hate”? “Division”? According to whom?

The answer is obvious: according to Apple, Google, YouTube, Facebook, and Twitter.

They are becoming the Big Brother Orwell foresaw.

Conform or die.

Cook’s ideas are exactly the same as his fellow chief executives at Google, YouTube, Facebook, and Twitter.

Disagree with Big Brother on, say, politics, or morality, and Big Brother will shut you up by shutting you down.

And what is it that Big Brother doesn’t like?

Well, Tim Cook, said it: anything that doesn’t conform to his left-wing worldview.

The examples are numerous and growing.

Meghan Murphy, a Canadian feminist, is permanently banned from Twitter for refusing to refer to the transgendered by their preferred pronoun, and for writing “women aren’t men.”

Google, Facebook and Twitter all at various times refused to carry political ads from Tennessee Republican candidate Marsha Blackburn, promoting her conservative views. She’s hardly the only one this has happened to.

And, as many of you know, YouTube continues to restrict over 100 of PragerU’s videos, finding them “inappropriate for children.” These include titles like, “Why Did America Fight the Korean War?”

Broad-based studies by the American Institute for Behavioral Research and Technology and by Northwestern University have confirmed what these examples clearly suggest: bias against conservatives at Google and other Big Tech sites.

And this is the bias we can plainly see. What we don't see, what Big Brother hides from us – what is referred to as “shadow banning” – may be even more pernicious.

If you're on the left, maybe you're okay with this. But if you're not on the left, or even if you are and you reverse the First Amendment, you should be concerned. Very concerned. We are advancing swiftly toward an Orwellian, 1984 world of stifling, one-way-of-thinking conformity. This time, it's not a fictional story. It's real.

What's the solution? Simply return to the open market of ideas that served Big Tech so well for so long. Stop the censorship and let people make up their own minds. Otherwise America – and the rest of what has been known as the Free World – will cease to be free.

That's how serious the Big Tech threat is.

You see, this is no joke. What I am saying is that Bible believing Christians will be the ones that will be targeted because of your conservative views – BIG BROTHER IS WATCHING!

Now maybe you are wondering how they will monitor us!

Have you heard what is going on in China and their system of monitoring the people of China, the over 1.4 billion people that live there being monitored continuously to see if they conform to the views of the state!

Listen carefully because I believe something like this will be implemented all over the world to control the behavior, the thinking, and I guess everything its citizens are doing. We are told regarding China's Credit System,

In 2020, the government's current version of the system will become the full Social Credit System (SCS). And it will be owned and operated entirely by the Chinese state government.

The SCS will take into account not only purchases, but also hobbies, your lifestyle, and even who you hang out with.

If you raise a child, attend government events, or do well at your job – things considered ideal for a model citizen – your social credit score will go up.

However...

If you drink too much, play too many video games, or speak ill of the government – your social credit score will go down.

It's a national database that will hold information on every citizen.

It will assess information as innocent as whether an academic degree was actually earned.

And as personal as if a female is supposed to be taking birth control.

In short, the SCS will not be a measurement of how regularly you pay your bills.

It will show the government precisely how well you toe the party line.

Chinese officials say that by 2020, the SCS will “allow the trustworthy to roam everywhere under heaven...”

But that's only looking at the benefits for people with a high score.

Here's the end of that quote: “while making it hard for the discredited to take a single step.”

If your credit score drops too low, you're basically ejected from society.

You'll be rejected for housing and loans.

Your children won't be able to attend good schools – even if their grades say otherwise.

You'll have a harder time finding a date (dating sites and apps in China allow people to advertise their social credit score).

You'll be turned away from good job opportunities.

Your internet speed could be cut.

Or, like Zhang, you'll be locked out of being able to buy train tickets and plane tickets.

You won't be able to leave the country.

In effect, the SCS is designed to completely eliminate mobility – social, class, or travel – for those who do not agree with the government's definition of a model citizen.

If the punishments are so severe, surely it must be hard to get a low score. Only for horrific crimes, right?

Wrong.

The common slogan in China is: “whoever violates the rules somewhere shall be restricted everywhere.”

Punishment is already happening on a broad scale. Chinese authorities have already banned more than 10 million people deemed “untrustworthy” from boarding flights and high-speed trains.

The majority of the elements are in place for the Social Credit System to be implemented. Not in China.

In the United States.

We have:

The databases

The digital surveillance

The national credit score system

The systems of reward and punishment

The government-knows-best attitude

The electronic purchasing data

The ubiquitous social networks

Think about it. China started with Alibaba and Tencent.

In the United States, we have Amazon and Facebook and Google.

They know everything you read, see, search, buy, and say.

Your Android or iPhone already tracks your location and reports it hundreds of times per day.

And that information is already being used for complete censorship.

In 2018, Facebook began a program that assigns every user a reputation score, which predicts their “trustworthiness.” Sound familiar?

Here is how China implemented the Social Credit Score system in just under five years:

They subjected all online behavior to intense study.

They collected, stored and analyzed all social media and banking information.

They began to severely regulate the freedom to travel.

And here’s what’s going on in the United States...

Police threat-scoring algorithms are used to determine who the police should be tracking and surveilling. Social media is already being used in these algorithms.

For the past decade, the NSA has been gathering information on people's social media, locations, friends, and who they travel with.

The agency can enrich the data with bank information, social media information, voter information and even GPS location information.

The TSA has a rapidly expanding "no-fly" list. The list has no government accountability, and there is no recourse – unless, of course, you're a powerful government official who ends up on it.

Indeed, a report from the World Privacy Forum indicates that in such a credit score system "error rates and false readings become a big issue."

Think about that in our nation! You go to church; your credit is down! You support pro-life, your credit is down! You are against homosexuality and transgenderism; your credit is down! You are training your children to respect others and to love Jesus; your credit is down!

And, as you read in Matthew, Jesus warned that family members will be turning in family members during the Tribulation Period and we see that already happening with the Social Credit System in China, the government even paying people for turning others in who are going against the governments way of thinking! It is BIG BROTHER!

Now maybe you are thinking I am overreacting regarding this One-World Government, that it won't be so bad. But if you feel that way, I don't think you understand the freedoms we have in this country.

Let me share with you what needs to happen if we are going to a global system of government and discard our sovereignty as a nation. Listen carefully to what we will lose!

- In order to merge the US into a one-world political, economic and religious system, our current delicate system of checks and balances that our founding fathers so carefully established would be eliminated. [Watch what is happening in Washington and you hear what they want to do, so see that we are losing our voice. For instance, the removal of the electoral college so that the progressives can move forward. Only the big states would have a voice in the voting process.]
- Our US Constitution, which has served us so well – giving us more freedom and opportunity to pursue happiness, prosperity, and religion than any nation in history – would have to be abolished or significantly altered in order to clear the way for world government. Therefore it could no longer offer protection to US citizens.
- We would have a weaker voice in government; less power to govern ourselves. The world government power base would either be New York City or, more than likely, Europe. If you are upset now about US elected officials in Washington not listening to the American people, imagine how much worse it will be if a group of international bureaucrats are funning our lives – possibly from another part of the world. They will have their own agenda and be far less apt to obey the wishes of the American people or protect our individual rights and freedom. If anything, they will see us as a thorn in their side and be inclined to deal harshly with resisters (primarily conservative Christians and Jews).
- An international tax would be imposed to fund this world government system. If an entirely new overarching layer of government is added to our current city, county, state and federal governments, it will have to be paid for somehow. Int'l planners have already discussed various types of taxes, such as collecting percentage fees based on the value of int'l currency transactions, the cost of airline travel, the consumption of water (even if you have your own well), along with an int'l income tax that would likely begin as a one to three percent tax and quickly increase from that as the int'l bureaucracy expands. In addition, some world government advocates are proposing that all individuals be forced to have a micro-chip embedded in their bodies which will enable the global administration to track everyone at all times. This chip would also be necessary in order to complete any financial transactions – all buying and selling.
- Those persons who have been at the forefront of pushing for an int'l form of government during the last 70 years have consistently been anti-Christian and anti-Jewish in their political and religious worldview. If we've learned from history, it is reasonable to assume that those trying to impose a new form of government will be the ones calling the shots once the system is in place. An awareness of their religious background, political and organizational affiliations (both public and secret), and personal beliefs and motivations gives us a good idea of what they will do once in power – ie. Hitler's "Mein Kampf."

- Gary Kah

But how are they going to be able to monitor every person in the world, even if they are all chipped?

That is a great question and I think the answer is AI or artificial intelligence, which is growing faster and faster. It is spoken of like it is part of our lives and I think it has become part of our lives.

In Revelation chapter 13 we see that the False Prophet gives life or breath to this image of the beast, and I believe that this is AI that will monitor all that is going on in the world and try to prevent problems from nations or individuals!

And there are many who are worried about AI taking over the world. I don't think that will happen, but they will watch over every person and be under the control of the Antichrist and the False Prophet.

Elon Musk is concerned about this and listen to what he has to say. We are told, Superintelligence - a form of artificial intelligence (AI) smarter than humans - could create an "immortal dictator," billionaire entrepreneur Elon Musk warned.

In a documentary by American filmmaker Chris Paine, Musk said that the development of superintelligence by a company or other organization of people could result in a form of AI that governs the world.

"The least scary future I can think of is one where we have at least democratized AI because if one company or small group of people manages to develop godlike digital superintelligence, they could take over the world," Musk said.

“At least when there’s an evil dictator, that human is going to die. But for an AI, there would be no death. It would live forever. And then you’d have an immortal dictator from which we can never escape.” . . .

“If AI has a goal and humanity just happens to be in the way, it will destroy humanity as a matter of course without even thinking about it. No hard feelings,” Musk said.

“It’s just like, if we’re building a road and an anthill just happens to be in the way, we don’t hate ants, we’re just building a road, and so, goodbye anthill.”

Musk believes that humans should merge with AI to avoid the risk of becoming irrelevant. He is the co-founder of Neuralink, a start-up that reportedly wants to link the human brain with a computer interface.

In Romans chapter 1 Paul warns us that if we willingly suppress the truths of God found in the Word of God, if we turn from God, He will give us over to all kinds of immoral, wicked behavior and that is what we are seeing today. And this immorality, this wickedness seems to be growing as people are moving farther and farther away from the Lord!

The Lord has told them – FOLLOW ME and they said, WE WILL NOT!

As you can see, we can spend a lot more time on all of this because things are happening so quickly in regard to Bible prophecy. But I want to end with this last point, and it is important for us to understand.

5. SUM IT UP – WE WILL NOT!

Now don't get scared, it doesn't mean that I am not going to sum this up. What I mean is that with a world, with many in the church who will not follow the Lord, how does this all relate to us?

The judgment of God is coming upon a Christ rejecting world. We are told of this in Colossians 3:6-7 where Paul wrote, “Because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the sons of disobedience, in which you yourselves once walked when you lived in them.”

And I do understand that there are many who want to deny the judgment of God, even in the church. But listen to this warning by Peter who wrote in II Peter 3:3-7, “knowing this first: that scoffers will come in the last days, walking according to their own lusts, and saying, ‘Where is the promise of His coming? For since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of creation.’ For this they willfully forget: that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of water and in the water, by which the world that then existed perished, being flooded with water. But the heavens and the earth which are now preserved by the same word, are reserved for fire until the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.”

Peter is telling us that in the last days, the days we are living in according to Hebrews 1:2, there will be those who are going to mock the judgment of God. And yes, even those in the church today we see that happening!

But Peter's warning is simple. If you feel this way, then you need to go back and look at the past and see that God's judgment was poured out on this earth during the flood! And yes, there were those who mocked it, most of them did, and then when that first raindrop fell, it was too late and they were destroyed.

Now you can reject the idea of the flood, but again, you have to suppress that truth to believe there was no flood. Look at the earth and see that it is built upon sedimentary layers of rock or rock that has been laid down by water, all over the earth! We have billions of dead things in these rock layers, and again, the flood destroyed them.

Make no mistake about it, the wrath of God is going to be poured out upon a Christ rejecting world whether we agree with it or not. God has been patient. God has been longsuffering, but as wickedness grows, His judgment will soon come!

And again, just in case you missed it, who is this judgment for? Peter told us, “But the heavens and the earth which are now preserved by the same word, are reserved for fire until the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.” II Peter 3:7.

Now you may not think of yourself as being ungodly, some of you might be feel that you are a pretty good person.

But during the Tribulation Period, as God’s judgment is being poured out upon a Christ rejecting world, as the people of this world are hiding themselves from the face of Him who sits upon the throne and from the Lamb, they cry out, “For the great day of His wrath has come, and who is able to stand?” Revelation 6:17.

Yes, they refused to come to Jesus, but they also saw that they were not able to stand before God in their own righteousness, which is like filthy rags.

The only way we can stand before God is by His righteousness being imputed into our lives by faith in Jesus. We must repent of our sins and ask Jesus to be Lord and Savior of our lives and once we do, then Paul reminds us what Christ has done for us in II Corinthians 5:21, “For He made Him who knew no sin to be sin for us, that we might become the righteousness of God in Him.”

And as you come to Christ, you then will escape the judgment of God, the wrath of God that will be poured out upon a Christ rejecting world. In Revelation 3:10 Jesus put it like this, “Because you have kept My command to persevere, I also will keep you from the hour of trial which shall come upon the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth.”

You see, as Christians our citizenship is in heaven and we are aliens and pilgrims on this earth, it is not our home, heaven is. Thus, God will keep us out of this judgment because He has already paid the price for our sins on the cross of Calvary, making this judgment for the earth dwellers or unbelievers!

And I know, there are some who believe we will go through the Tribulation Period but listen to what Paul said to these young believers in Thessalonica.

In I Thessalonians 1:10 we are told how they turned from idols, “and to wait for His Son from heaven whom He raised from the dead, even Jesus who delivers us form the wrath to come.”

Also, in I Thessalonians 5:9 we are told, “For God did not appoint us to wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ.”

There is great comfort and hope in that.

But what are we to do until He comes for the Church, His Bride?

We are to occupy until He comes! We are to continue doing the work that God has called us to do.

And yes, there is and will be persecution in this world, but don't let that stop you from being a light in this dark world, from sharing your faith!

I think this whole social credit system will continue to grow throughout the world and it will identify us as troublemakers and our credit will be low.

That is fine, I am not trying to be justified by the world. I am justified in Christ and I am so thankful that He does not judge me or rate me on how I am doing, but it is a finished work that He has done!

I have given you a lot of information in a short period of time. Well, maybe not a short period of time. But what I want you to see is that things are happening quickly and we must be about our Lord's work and go out into the highways and byways and compel people to come into the Kingdom of God!

Let me close with this. We are told,

A servant whose master and mistress were away was uncertain when they would return. A friend visited her and feeling rather tired went in to rest. When she got up she saw that the servant had gone to all kinds of trouble to lay the table for tea as if her master and mistress were coming home that hour. She questioned the servant whether the master and mistress were coming home that day, but her friend answered, "I have not heard, but as the time is uncertain, I always have everything ready each day."

What a lesson this is for the Christian - to have everything ready every day and every hour of the day.
